

Quality Policy

UNIPAK NILE a member of INDEVCO Group, manufactures creative corrugated packaging for the Egyptian and international markets and committed to provide high quality packaging needs, overall value and utmost customer service through utilizing high quality materials, skilled workforce, proper work environment, most up to date machinery and technology.

As the company aims to achieve business sustainability and customer satisfaction, it continues to look for opportunities to develop its role that goes beyond the role of carton manufacturers that supplies customers in the local and global market. It perceives its role as a partner in the creation and sustainability of solutions to improve the efficiency and profitability of its customers.

Driven by its strong determination to best serve its entire stakeholders by including customers and legal/ governmental entities by investing in the latest technology, high product knowledge, long-term planning and also by complying with the latest quality management standards, laws and regulations.

Top Management is highly committed to achieve operational and business excellence through ensuring high quality standard, managing appropriate business risks and continual improvement through applying best practice, consistency in quality management System in accordance to ISO 9001-2015, ISO 45001-2018, ISO 14001-2015, YUM, SEDEX, FSC And BRCGS Packaging materials Issue 6 and appropriate customer provided guidelines to execution aiming to gain customer satisfaction.

We ensure to communicate this policy through appropriate method and medium to all stakeholders including employees to make them understand and apply within organization.

General Manager.

Nader Tahtouh

Dated: 13.4.2023

